

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TRAINING

We recently traveled to Bangkok for the first Leadership Development Training meeting with the Thailand Assemblies of God. This meeting was for pastors who have an interest in developing a training program at their church. This is the first step for them to train more pastors. We are excited that everything is moving forward, and we were able to return in time to attend this meeting. Pastors from all over Thailand along with six missionaries were in attendance. Thailand Assemblies of God General superintendent, Pastor Aunupop shared an informative and encouraging message. The newly appointed director, Pastor Alisha, has done a wonderful job of organizing and leading this group.

FANG CHURCH VISIT

A big part of what we are doing this term is visiting with multiple churches and pastors in order to help and encourage them. We recently had the opportunity to spend a day at The Fang Romyen Liberty Church, which is one of the larger churches in northern Thailand. We spent the day celebrating their First Fruits Festival (Thanksgiving). It was an exciting time that was attended by 25 pastors from Assemblies of God churches. We thanked God, had great fellowship, and learned more about the churches in the north. God is definitely moving in this part of the country!

CHIANGMAI MISSIONARY TEAM

This term we will be based out of Chiangmai, in Northern Thailand. We are thrilled that there are a number of other Assemblies of God missionaries living here now. Our team members are Sara Whitehurst (California) who has been serving in Chiangmai for a number of years, Robbie & Michelle Negron, along with their children Elijah, Angelie and Brandon (Washington) who arrived for their first term this past fall, and Marty and Connie Vanderzanden (Minnesota) who just arrived for their first term. Although we all have different callings and ministries, we meet weekly for prayer, trainings and devotion times. We love how God is using this team. Life is better when we do things together.
