

CHIANGMAI CHURCHES

There are four Thai Assemblies of God Churches in Chiangmai that we work with. During these unusual times we continue to build stronger relationships with the pastors of these churches. We are working hard to encourage them, pray with them, and be a financial blessing to them. Our missionary team here in Thailand was able to help the Thai Assemblies of God churches purchase 5,000 bottles of hand sanitizer. Many of the churches we work with did local outreaches giving away the hand sanitizer and food to those in need. They offered prayer as well. God is using this situation to reach the lost and hurting here in Thailand.

COVID-19 IN THAILAND

Thailand has been quite strict with things during this COVID-19 time. Because of this, the effects have been relatively minimal. There have been a little over 3,000 cases and 56 deaths in all of Thailand. This past week they decided to start opening things up slowly. Restaurants, malls, hair salons, public parks and a few other things are now open. We are now able to meet in person as long as distancing and general precautions are taken. This past Sunday we were able to gather, celebrate, and worship together at TLC Church. We are so thankful!

MY NEW FRIEND SURASAK

On a recent Sunday morning I (Paul) went to the market to buy some bananas. I was surprised when an elderly man named Surasak introduced himself to me by saying, "I am a Buddhist man and last night I kept thinking about sin. Can you tell me what Christians believe sin is or could you take me to a church so I can find out?" I was able to explain to him about sin and much more. We sat down and talked for an hour about everything from creation to Jesus' death on the cross. We've met a couple of times now and I've invited him to church. He's not quite ready for that yet but he has a strong desire to know more!

Prayer Requests

- Pray for the Thai Pastors and Churches (and us) as we continue to try to meet the needs of our community.
- Pray for Buddhist people that they find their hope in Christ.
- Pray that I am able to share more about Christianity with Surasak.
