

PEOPLE IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

We have been doing morning prayer walks in our neighborhood for a few years. In addition to praying, we have met quite a few Thai people who live here. There are a variety of people, but the main thing they all have in common is they are Buddhist.

We chat with Grandma Posee and her 10-year-old granddaughter Cupcake. They love to practice their English. Taro is our next-door neighbor who is in his second year of medical school at Chiangmai University. He has helped Paul translate one of his sermons into Thai. Sue is a Thai woman who knows no English but loves to join us on our walks. Her son lives in Missouri and recently married a Christian woman. Sompan is a 75-year-old who is originally from Bangkok and went to a Christian school there. He is rather quiet, and we are still trying to get to know him better. Surasak is an elderly man who knows the Bible very well but hasn't committed his life to Christ yet. Lastly, there are two monks that we see many mornings.

We love that God has allowed us to build relationships with such a variety of people right here in our neighborhood. May we continue to bring His light into this dark place.

We've also been singing the old Sesame street song – People in your Neighborhood – check it out on YouTube.

10 YEARS IN THAILAND

February 2022 marked our 10-year anniversary of moving to Thailand. We love and appreciate that we have seen God move in so many amazing ways over these 10 years. There have been miracles, new believers, baptisms, births, weddings, funerals, and many friendships formed.

TRIP TO THE US

In January we enjoyed a quick trip to the US to visit our family. The weather was terribly cold, but the time spent with them made it all worthwhile. For those of you that don't know, we have four children who are all married. We also have six grandchildren (2 boys & 4 girls) ages 7 months to 9 years. What a blessing it was to see them all in person, especially the two youngest which we hadn't met yet. We also enjoyed some sweet time with our extended families.
