

PAI'S MIRACLE AND BAPTISM

Our Thai language teacher, Pai accepted Christ into her life several months ago. We connected her with Liberty Church Chaingmai, and it has been a great fit for her. A few weeks ago, she became very sick and the doctors couldn't determine why she was having so much pain. The church members rallied around her in prayer. One night while she was in the hospital, she was very anxious and felt she may die so she started praying. When she opened her eyes, she saw a golden cross and felt totally at peace. Her pain instantly went away. The doctors did more tests and couldn't determine the cause of the pain or how she was healed. Praise God for this miracle! The next Sunday she came to church and shared her healing testimony. She was then baptized along with 11 other people. It was extra special as Robyn was able to help Pastor Wat with her baptism.

CHURCH BUILDING PROJECTS IN CHIANGMAI

There are three Assemblies of God Churches in Chiangmai that are in the process of buying land and building churches. God has given these pastors an amazing vision and a burden to reach the lost. All three are thriving and in need of more space for their services. We are thrilled to see that God is on the move here in Chiangmai!

NEW MISSIONARY ASSOCIATE

We are super excited to share that Robyn Thompson will be coming to serve with us in Thailand later this year. Robyn T is from our home church in Minnesota, and we have known her for 12 years. She has been here twice over the years and loves the country, people, food and culture. She is very grateful that God has called her to a place that she has loved for nearly 20 years.
